

YOUR NEW CHALLENGE?

WORKING STUDENT – MARKETING & DESIGN (m/f/d)

We are looking for a highly motivated working student to support us in the strategic and creative communication along all customer touchpoints - from sales pitch, customer onboarding, to platform UX.

Do you want to become part of our mission to get transport emissions to net-zero by enabling our logistics clients to make the right decisions?

WHAT WE OFFER YOU

- Interesting and purposeful tasks, contributing to carbon-reduction
- Inspiring work environment in the beautiful Speicherstadt
- Fast decision-making and great flexibility
- Active support in learning new skills quickly
- A variety of quickly growing topics for new ideas and creative work

YOUR ROLE

- You support us in the areas of business development, marketing, research, content creation and communication
- You are part of developing our communication strategy and take on responsibility for its creative implementation
- You are open-minded and proactively contribute ideas for improvement

YOUR PROFILE

- You are very skilled in designing presentations and communication materials, especially with PowerPoint
- You already have first work experience from internships or as a working student
- Ideally, you have an interest in sustainability and/or logistics
- You are enrolled in university and interested in working 16-20 hours/week (preferably for a longer period of time)
- You are proficient in German and English
- Nice-to-have: Experience in B2B content creation and first references or examples to share
- And finally, you have a good sense of humor 😊

We are looking forward to you and your application - ideally with a short cover letter in German or English and a notice of your availability.
